Standings After Week 5

5-0: Raymond49 4-1: Whodatjuan 3-2: 00sef, Caullyn, Jer13, Karrrobi 2-3: Zaniac18, JLozoya, NathanR918 1-4: hogsett7, mattware1199, satiro

The Lead Story

Week 5 was a story of two numbers: 201.98 and 188.86. Zaniac18 beat hogsett7 by 13.12 in a 390.84-point game, the highest-scoring matchup of the season, and hogsett7's 188.86 is the best score by a losing team this year. Zaniac18 (2-3) and hogsett7 (1-4) are now a combined 3-7, which says more about the standings than about either lineup.

Elsewhere the leaders held. Raymond49 improved to 5-0 by beating Whodatjuan (4-1), 112.66 to 95.44, the clash of the top two records in the league. Raymond49 scored 52.5 below its 165.2 average through Week 4 and still won, because Whodatjuan had three starters at 1.4 points or less. The biggest margin of the week was Jer13's 47.50-point win over satiro (46.7%), and JLozoya bounced from a season-low 64.74 to a 145.40 win.

A note on the numbers: finals and records are Sleeper's, and every lineup total was checked against its player-by-player box score. Awards that depend on optimal-lineup data are not included.

MARQUEE MATCHUP

Raymond49 Survives a Down Week to Stay Perfect

Raymond49 (5-0) scored 112.66, its lowest total of the season and 52.5 under its Week 1-4 average of 165.2, and it was still enough. The reason sits on the other side: Whodatjuan (4-1) put up 95.44, a season low, with D. Montgomery (1.10), H. Fannin (1.40) and K. Mumpfield (0.00) all in the lineup.

Whodatjuan's best moments came from J. Smith-Njigba (22.80 on 5 catches for 102 yards and a touchdown), M. Golden (20.30) and kicker S. Shrader (21.00 on five field goals). For Raymond49, G. Wilson had 23.40 and B. Purdy 17.16, and the Vikings defense added 11.00.

The result gives Raymond49 sole possession of first place. Whodatjuan has lost for the first time and drops one spot in the power rankings.
