Standings After Week 6

5-1: Raymond49, Whodatjuan 4-2: Jer13 3-3: 00sef, Zaniac18, Caullyn, Karrrobi, NathanR918 2-4: hogsett7, mattware1199, JLozoya 1-5: satiro

The Lead Story

The league no longer has an unbeaten team. mattware1199 beat Raymond49 120.40 to 117.76, a 2.64-point margin (2.2%), and Raymond49 slipped to 5-1 on a week when its kicker and defense scored 4.00 each. Whodatjuan caught up at 5-1 by beating 00sef, the league's top scorer, 152.46 to 106.50. That is 57.0 above Whodatjuan's season-low 95.44 from Week 5 and the highest score of the week.

Behind them the middle is crowded: five teams sit at 3-3. Zaniac18 (125.94) set the perfect possible lineup according to Sleeper, while 00sef left 21.80 points on its bench (128.30 available, 106.50 scored) and Caullyn fell to a season-low 115.34. Sleeper's projected favorites went 2-4 on the week, based on projections captured before lineup changes.

A note on the numbers: finals, records and awards are Sleeper's, and every lineup total was checked against its player-by-player box score.

MARQUEE MATCHUP

Whodatjuan Bounces Back With the Week's Top Score and Beats 00sef

Whodatjuan (now 5-1) scored 152.46, 57.0 more than its season-low 95.44 a week earlier, and beat 00sef by 45.96 (43.2%). T. Shough had 26.96 (three passing touchdowns plus a rushing score), K. Walker 27.90 (128 yards, two touchdowns), J. Smith-Njigba 25.40 (12 catches, 134 yards) and D. Swift 23.00.

It did that with its defense slot empty at 0.00 and H. Fannin at 1.90, so the number could have been higher.

00sef (3-3) scored a season-low 106.50. Sleeper's numbers show 128.30 was available, so 21.80 points sat on the bench, and 00sef missed its 140.73 projection by 24%. J. Allen had 18.30 and C. Hubbard 19.10, but R. Stevenson (3.60) and T. Warren (0.00, no stats) gave little.

THE FINAL
Whodatjuan 152.46 (5-1)
00sef 106.50 (3-3)
Margin: 45.96 (43.2%)
VS. AVERAGE
Whodatjuan: +19.4
