Season Opener Watch: Patriots @ Seahawks

Wednesday, Sept. 9, 2026 · 8:20 PM ET · NBC/Peacock · Lumen Field

The 2026 season kicks off with a Super Bowl LX rematch — Seattle hosts the Patriots in the first Wednesday opener since 2012. Several One Bite League rosters have real stakes in this one tonight.

Players to Watch

Jaxon Smith-Njigba (WR, SEA)

Whodatjuan — starting

Focal point of Seattle's passing attack in the game that defines their title defense. Projected 19.67 — a primetime opener is exactly the stage where elite target-share receivers pad their game log.

A.J. Brown (WR, NE)

JLozoya — starting

First game in a Patriots uniform after the trade from Philadelphia, part of a full receiving-corps overhaul that also brought in Romeo Doubs. Thin target competition behind him points to a heavy workload.

Rhamondre Stevenson (RB, NE)

00sef — starting

TreVeyon Henderson (ankle) was ruled OUT on New England's final injury report — hasn't practiced since Aug. 24. Stevenson is now the clear, unambiguous lead back, with only a practice-squad body behind him.

↑ STOCK UP — Stevenson's workload just got materially better for 00sef heading into the Zaniac18 matchup.

TreVeyon Henderson (RB, NE)

mattware1199 — rostered

Officially inactive tonight (ankle) — the same injury on the league's Risk Watch, now fully realized as a missed game. Only partial lineup visibility for mattware1199 this week, so exact start/bench status isn't confirmed here, but he's unavailable regardless.

↓ STOCK DOWN — Worth tracking his practice reps into Week 2 before trusting him in a lineup again.

Patriots DEF vs. Seahawks DEF (DEF)

Karrrobi (NE) — satiro (SEA) — both starting

Both defenses are active fantasy starters, and they're playing each other tonight. Whichever unit forces more turnovers or limits points is also working directly against a rostered offensive player (Smith-Njigba or A.J. Brown) in the same game.

Drake Maye (QB, NE)

hogsett7 — rostered, not starting

New England's actual starting QB tonight, but hogsett7 is starting Jaxson Dart instead. A big primetime performance is worth watching — it could change hogsett7's QB pecking order for Week 2.

↑ STOCK UP — A big night reopens the case for Maye over Dart going forward.
