Matchup by Matchup

This edition works from team totals only (the league overview screen). Player-level box scores aren't included.

Whodatjuan Survives Its Lowest Score of the Year and Stays Perfect

Whodatjuan 109.54 — 64.74 JLozoya

Whodatjuan (4-0) put up its worst number of the season and still won by almost 45, because JLozoya turned in the lowest team score in the league this year. JLozoya falls to 1-3 and sits last in the power rankings, with all $100 of its FAAB still unspent.

mattware1199 Finally Gets on the Board

mattware1199 174.08 — 129.78 Jer13

mattware1199's 174.08 was its season high by more than 55 points and the second-best score of the week. It ends the 0-3 start and moves the team up five spots in the power rankings. Jer13 (2-2) scored a respectable 129.78 and lost anyway.

satiro Joins the Win Column

Zaniac18 110.20 — 153.10 satiro

satiro's 153.10 is also a season high, and it beats Zaniac18 for the first win of the year. satiro added Ollie Gordon II in the earlier trade with Zaniac18 (Wan'Dale Robinson and $45 FAAB went the other way). Zaniac18 drops to 1-3 and now holds the league's lowest FAAB balance at $45.

Karrobi Edges hogsett7 in the Closest Game

hogsett7 108.54 — 119.28 Karrobi

The week's narrowest result: a 9.9% margin. Karrobi's 119.28 was its best score of the year, and the team now stands alone in third at 3-1 with its full $100 FAAB still in hand. hogsett7 slips to 1-3.

Raymond49 Rolls On, NathanR918 Gets the Short End

Raymond49 164.12 — 90.02 NathanR918

Raymond49 (4-0) leads the league in points scored (660.58) and handed out the week's biggest blowout, an 82.3% margin. NathanR918 was also named Worst Manager: the best possible lineup was 118.02, and 90.02 is 76% of that.

00sef Posts a Perfect 221.02 — and Caullyn Still Loses

Caullyn 162.68 — 221.02 00sef

00sef set the perfect lineup and scored the maximum possible, a league-best 221.02. Caullyn's 162.68 was a season high and the fourth-best score of the week, and it still lost by 58. Both teams are 2-2, but Caullyn has now allowed the most points in the league (655.18), while 00sef has the second-most points scored (633.36).

Trade Watch

Zaniac18 and mattware1199 swapped Saquon Barkley for Malik Nabers (accepted Oct. 5, effective Thursday per Sleeper). The week of the deal, Barkley left Sunday's game with a hamstring injury and is expected to miss at least Week 5, while Nabers had his best game since his ACL tear (6 catches, 112 yards, 1 TD). The full analysis is in the Barkley/Nabers trade review.

Power Rankings After Week 4

Formula: raw = ((avg points × 6) + ((high + low) × 2) + (win% × 400)) ÷ 10. Grade is a fixed scale on average points.

Source: Sleeper league overview screen (Oct. 6, 2026): final matchup scores, records, standings, and weekly report. A correction: Sleeper's season point totals imply slightly different Week 1 scores than the Week 1 recap published earlier for six teams (e.g., Caullyn 143.70 rather than 152.20; mattware1199 116.46 rather than 106.36; NathanR918 69.76; Zaniac18 170.76; hogsett7 104.60; JLozoya 158.16), most likely stat corrections after the fact. No Week 1 result changed. The power rankings above use the corrected figures, which reconcile to Sleeper's totals.
